All the news that fits in print

..... lou joseph

Before anyone blows a gasket, I did not put all the results in this issue from the recent phenomenal RONI Labor Day Regional Tournament. Why? WE RAN OUT OF ROOM!!!! ( The balance of the results will appear in the November issue. )The tournament was wonderful as always, thanks to the magnificent jobs done by Mary Paulone Carns, Judy Haffner (ed: Lou's too modest. He supervised. But OK, you did good, too, Lou.), and Ken and Barb Bergman, who got so many compliments for the spectacular hospitality that I was beginning to get nauseous hearing about it! (Just kidding, of course. No one knows better than I how much work they put into making it seem so effortless.) The Hyatt is a fabulous site, and the schedule seems to appeal to the crowds, but without the Bergmans efforts, it would all be for naught. Being a part of the committee, I can honestly say that everybody made us look good! Mary, Judy and I want to offer our thanks to everyone who pitched in, and I offer a special thanks to those who took the time to deliver the novice lectures. The attendance at the lectures was spectacular, (even Arlene's!) and I hope the attendees were as delighted as I was.

Congratulations go to Allen Graves and Mark Lair, who tied for the over 2000 MP race and to Elio Catafalmo (a repeat performance!) who won the under 2000 MP race.

Lots of wonderful events coming up in the next few months. THE PRO-AM GAME IS SOLD OUT! Can you believe it? Arlene Port and Judy Haffner did such a great job of selling, that they filled the hall at Rodef Shalom! But if you missed your chance, there are plenty of other great games. The annual Fossick-Goodman team game will be held on 11/7 at the Glenshaw Moose (see page 3) and the Fall Sectional at the Masonic comes right after that (also see page 3). Don't forget that the PBA Classes begin on 10/11 at Rodef Shalom (see page 2). Well, I've run out of room on this page too, so I'd better sign off....

ELECTION POST

PBA BD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION

Election: Saturday, Nov 12 2010
Nominating Petitions Due By:
Oct 12 2010

The Bylaws of the Pittsburgh Bridge Association call for a 20-member Board of Directors, with each Director serving a two-year term. Terms are staggered, and 10 members are to be elected each year. For 2009, six Board members' terms are expiring. If you would like to run for the Board of Directors, you need to submit a nominating petition, signed by ten members of the Pittsburgh Bridge Association. The deadline for submitting nominating petitions is 10/12/10. In the last few years, we have had fewer nominations than there were Board seats to fill, and there has been no need to hold an election. If more than ten nominating petitions are received, an election will be held on , at the Fall Sectional, to select the members of the Board who will serve from 2010 until 2012. Please submit any nominating petitions to Board President Bill Holt or Elections Chair Ron Franck, or any current board member

The following board members' terms are expiring:

Bill Holt
Barb Bergman
Ken Bergman
Lou Joseph
Maryanne McNeirney
Darlene Mannheimer
Marilyn Painter
George Retos
Steve Schwarzwaelder

INTERNET POST

You are South, IMP's , NS Vul You hold:
S J98 H Q8 D 732 C J 10 8 4 2

The bidding is:

SOUTH	WEST	NORTH	EAST
PASS	1C	1D	1S
PASS	2S	DBL	4S
PASS	PASS	DBL	PASS

? If you pass, what do you lead?

Florine Walters: Lead a Low D Partner is aware that I am broke and will probably pass. If we are minus 790, it will probably be duplicated at the other table. My choice of leads is the two of diamonds for the following reasons: More than likely declarer is short in diamonds and probably has three or four hearts. East and West own at least seven hearts between the two hands. Knowing this, as well as knowing that the club suit cannot be set up for many discards, I think it wise to try for at least one diamond trick before it can be discarded. Additionally, it is more valuable not to expose my Qx in the heart suit, it should be more valuable defensively later in the play of the hand. My lead of the low diamond rather than the high diamond could be more important for partner to have an idea of the count in the suit.

Trudy Cohn: Lead QH. I will pass and then lead the Queen of Hearts. I have no reason to think that we can make five of anything so I will go for the plus score for setting them. My best shot at contributing tricks to the process is to try for a heart ruff or to establish partner's heart suit as he has indicated strong tolerance for hearts.

Marvin Rulin: Lead QH. partner has values besides diamonds but I have no reasonable bid. Because of partner's values I'm tempted to lead a spade to reduce a cross ruff, but prefer the heart queen.

Maybe I can get a ruff for myself
ED NOTE: Having obtained the rank of Life Master, we welcome Marvin into the "Expert", rather than the "Auxiliary" part of the Internet Post.

Bill Holt Bid 5C. Partner has a good hand with short Spades. If he had a great hand he would have doubled initially then pulled to his diamond suit. Partner's X of 4S is co-operative but I think I have too many diamonds to want to defend. My hand will be worth more playing clubs. If they hit 5c I can consider bidding 5d or prepare my apologies. I think they are making 4S, but if I were to pass I would lead the QH ... trying to score a ruff, as partner is strong and has heart honors.

Mary Paulone Carns: Bid 5D. I have no defensive tricks and partner can't have 4 tricks. At least he shouldn't.

Stan Ruskin: Lead 2D The 1st question is easy. I pass. Partner has taken over the auction and a double is penalty in my book. I'm not going to start guessing now which is what I would be doing if I did anything else but pass. The double also tells me that we should be able to defeat the contract no matter what I lead so I don't think I should be doing something unusual. Partner is probably 4H and 6 or 7D. If he were AKxx and AKxxxxx, I think he would should bid 5D. I don't think he has a club void because with the powerful hand he has – playing and defense – he might (should have bid 3C with a C void. At any rate, I lead the 2D which will give him count. A close 2nd would have been a spade but the J98 could be important if declarer tries to ruff things.

Steve Nolan: Bid 5D Partner's doubles both make more sense as takeout, and my hand doesn't have any defensive tricks or distribution which suggest converting the last double to a penalty. Of the possible bids, 5H is out -- I don't think partner has more than four hearts, because with so much distribution, he would have bid 3H in the second round. Instead, I think that partner's distribution is 0-4-5-4 or 0-4-6-3. Even 0-4-7-2 is possible. I prefer 5D to 5C because (i) it right-sides the contract, and (ii) partner is likely to take at least as many tricks in diamonds as in clubs, no matter which of the possible distributions he holds, and with some shapes 5D is much better.

PJ Prabhu: Lead D2. Want to lead through dummy and cash whatever D tricks we can.

Hearts can wait.

Gail Carns: Lead HQ anything can be right or wrong.

Herb Sachs Bid 5D. My first thought is partner is showing 0/4/5/4 or 0/4/6/3 so I should pull to 4nt/5c/or 5d? not 6/4 in minors with which 2nt is the descriptive bid. so why give me a chance to pass??can he possibly have enough defensive tricks to beat this?? I say no and am bidding 5d.this way I don't have to declare or lead!!!

Asim Ulke: Lead QH. I can not imagine making a call with this hand at the 5 level. It looks like we need 3 tricks from the heart suit to come close to beating this hand. After that, hope for a club or a diamond trick.

Ernie Retetagos Lead QH. The pass seems clear cut, especially for total trick aficionados. The Queen of hearts lead stands out, either to set up 2 heart tricks or to win the 1st three tricks.

Bruce Keidan: Lead a Diamond: pass without question, and lead an unimaginative diamond.

Jane Marshall: Lead QH pass and lead the Queen of hearts. I know my partner has a very good hand, but I am short in hearts (partner has 4 hearts) and short in diamonds. I believe partner would have bid 4NT with 5-5 in the minors. Therefore, I believe that we can take 3 or 4 tricks on defense and do not believe that we can make 5 clubs.

Richard Katz: Lead QH. I trump lead might work but on this hand I lead the heart.
AUXILIARY EXPERT:

Paul Rosenberg: Lead QH. We are vulnerable, and it is their hand, although I expect my partner to have at least 4 diamonds, 2 spades and probably 3 clubs and 4 hearts....I am passing and then leading the queen of hearts, hoping to cash 2 hearts of my partner and then I ruff one. The setting trick might come from the clubs

GREENSBURG OUTPOST by Mary Jo Johnson

I think that I heard #43 as the representative number of Greensburg players who received points at the Pittsburgh Regional Tournament at the airport last month. SO.... there probably were more in attendance even though we hate to admit that some players might not have earned any points. All Greensburg games were canceled encouraging players to participate in the competition. The venue (although a little far travel-wise) was great and the Pittsburgh committee did a terrific job !

As a result of earning his small amount of necessary GOLD points, Ed Collins is officially a Life Master. Way to go Ed ! And kudos to your team mates as well: Sally Wozniak and Dennis and Carol Gibboney. The Thursday game recently honored Ed with a present for achieving his goal. I know that his team-mates are breathing a little easier these days and so is Ed's wife, Judy, who is becoming a regular at the bridge table too.

Some other Greensburg players, Audrey Marzolf and Bea Hackenberg, were part of the team that enabled Dave Legal to become a Life Master at the same tournament. The fourth member of that team was Bea's son, Roy. A lot of Greensburg players regularly attend Dave's Monday game at Export, where Dave had a cake commemorating his achievement.

Do you believe in coincidence? Listen to this one. Erwin Illson and his wife, Mary, both became Life Masters at Kitty Jo Hellmann's Friday game. Then a while back, Erwin became a Bronze Life Master at the same game. Where's this going? You guessed it..... a couple of weeks ago, Mary became a Bronze Life Master at the same infamous Friday game. Kitty Jo is certainly their lucky charm. Are you going for SILVER?

It's great to see some of Kitty Jo's Friday novices venturing to the Wednesday and Thursday games. Seen at the tables recently: Mary Kahl and Lynda Gesalman. Y'all come back now, y' hear?

Larry Evans will be starting a 6 week course on Cue Bidding beginning Thursday, Oct. 14th at the First Christian: Disciples of Christ Church in Greensburg. Class will be from 10: 30 - 11: 30, prior to the regularly scheduled Thursday game. The cost is $25. For further information you may contact Larry at 724-258-5022. Sign up for the class and then stay to play. Thursday's game uses the electronic Bridge Pads for scoring and at the conclusion of the game, there are hand records.

This is a beautiful time of the year and although this has been a particularly hot, sunny September, we know that fall (at least on the calendar) is here. In another week or two the leaves will be at their "peak" and we in this area are blessed to have such colorful foliage. ENJOY !!!!!
