All the news that fits in print

As I'm writing this, it's SNOWING outside, and it's still OCTOBER! What's wrong with this picture? Well, at least it looks pretty...

The Annual Pro-Am Charity event was held at Rodef Shalom Temple on Thursday, October 27, 2011. 28 1/2 tables in play made for a great game and a lovely evening, hosted by Patty Katz and Sandie Spear Brand. We all know how much work and effort is required to bring off such an event, so kudos and thanks to Patty and Sandy for all their efforts. I could go on and on, but Sandie has written a much better précis than I. Turn to page 10 to read about it. You can find the overall results on page 8, and the complete results are available on the PBA Website. (note: All those who think I'm abused by my co-chair, smack Lou.)

Don't forget the upcoming "FALL FESTIVAL" Sectional (flyer on facing page.) Arlene Port and Judy Haffner have been working like dogs to make sure this is a spectacular tournament, and only Arlene would go to the trouble of putting her own picture on the flyer to entice people to come! Seriously, it promises to be a great time, and I hope everyone plans to make an effort to attend.

Even though STaC week (Sectional Tournamnet at Clubs) isn't until the first week of December, it's not too early to make plans for all those silver point games, especially the Friday Evening Unit Game December 9th, which also happens to be the annual Holiday Party, and the special STaC Swiss Team Event on Sunday December 11th at the Glenshaw Moose. I'm telling you this now because last month I really screwed up the works by listing a non-existent game on Thursday during STaC week and noting that the team game would be at Wilkins Twp. Mark your calendars correctly,

NEED HELP WITH A PARTNER
 FOR THE SECTIONAL? CALL
 JANE OR DARLENE OR - ELSE!~!

INTERNET POST

You are South, N/S Vul, and you hold:

S A 6 5 3 2
 H K Q J 8 3
 D 7
 C A 5

The bidding is:
 SOUTH WEST NORTH EAST
 — PASS PASS PASS
 1S 2NT 4S* 5C

* 3c= GAME INVITATIONAL-PLUS RAISE.

There are no special agreements

Ernie Retetagos 5 Diamonds, Trying to coax a 5 heart bid out of partner.

Steve Nolan: 5H. The opponents have found their fit and I'm sure that their 5C is either a good sacrifice or will actually make, so double is out. We're going to play this contract in some number of spades, and I need to make the most informative bid I can so that partner can pick the right level. Clearly that's 5H, and partner should sign off in 5S without the ace of hearts. Otherwise, we'll end up in 6S, which basically needs partner's spades
 to include the king (which is likely),
 and preferably either the queen or the jack-ten too

Herb Sachs: DBL As I can't know how preemptive 4s is and have no safety at the five level I double; forcing pass as we have bid a vulnerable game is my second choice I'm assuming this is match points and minus scores are bad.

MAKE YOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SECTIONAL - TODAY

Stan Ruskin : 5S I have no idea why partner would bid 4S when there are so many other bids he could make but that is what he did. I would think partner has long spades and nothing else. What are my options here? I could pass – a forcing pass – that would say that I have at worst a singleton club and at best 1st round control – or I could bid 5S which rates to make or at least have a great play. If we can't make 5S, they conceivably could make 5C which is doubtful. Partner's bid of 4S guarantees that he has no outside A – I would kill partner if he had Kxxxx of S and an outside A and bid 4S. If I make a forcing pass, partner must either double or bid. If he bids 5S, we play it there. If he bids 5H or 5D, I will bid a slam and save the discussion of why he bid 4S with an outside A for a later date. If he doubles, I still might bid 5S since we are vulnerable and they aren't but you only asked me what I bid over 5C. In the end, I think I will bid 5S because I don't think I can possibly get 800 in 5C X even if partner had a diamond stack. We would get at most 1C, 1S, 1H and 2D.

Marvin Rulin: 5S Hi from sunny florida. i'm answering this problem in my shorts and t shirt so forgive me if i'm not thinking about bridge. I bid 5 spades. All it takes to make slam is Kxxxx in spades and the heart ace but I don't know how to find this out. Given the skewed distribution we're not assured of setting 5clubs

Bill Holt : 5H. East is taking a White on Red save, believing we are making 4S. Partner needs 2 of 4 cards (KS, AH, Ad or Kc) or one of those and a stiff club for me to have a play for 5, more than that and we'll make 6. Partner's weakest action would be 3S, so partner also thinks we can make 4. I have extras and want partner to upgrade his hand if holding the AH. Double is an alternate, but I don't think I am 'playing partner for the perfect hand', I think there are inferences from the sequence which lead me to bid.

PJ Prabhu: 5H. On the one hand we may not make 5S; on the other, we may be cold for a slam (Kxxxx, xxx, Axxx, x). Vulnerable against not, pard should have a decent hand. I like my distribution, the first or second round control of every suit and a source of tricks in H. Hence I bid 5H on the way to 5S to let pard know where my values are.

Bob Zimmermann.5S. It would be nice to know the scoring conditions. At MPs, double has some appeal. I shouldn't be worse than average minus at +100 or +300. At IMPs, +100 vs -650 is more of a disaster than -100 vs -100. Still, I need as little as Kxxxx xxx xxx xx to have good play for this. Partner's bypassing of 3C should indicate a preemptive raise.

Bernie Fudor: PASS If pass is forcing and it should be that's my bid

Arlene Port: 5H. Being an optimist, I think we can make 5S or maybe even 6 or 6 hearts. I suspect east has made a preemptive bid because if they didn't there has to be at least 50 points in the deck. That wasn't the case the last time I looked.. I always know the correct answer because I send out the question. Why don't I ever know enough to agree with experts?

Jane Marshall: 5 spades. Partner needs too many controls for us to make 6 spades. My spade spots are not good. If partner had K of spades and Ace of hearts we might make 6 spades. (I really expect spades not to be 2-2.) If partner doesn't have the Ace of hearts or the Ace of Diamonds, we'll go down. I think that partner does have one or two working cards.

Asim Ulke: 5H I assume it is matchpoints. Double might bring 100 or 300 but may not be worth many matchpoints. Partner thinks we can probably make 4S. If partner has as little as S king and H ace, I can make probably make 6S. I bid 5H to encourage partner to bid 6S with the right kind of holding.

PJ Prabhu: 5H. On the one hand we may not make 5S; on the other, we may be cold for a slam (Kxxxx, xxx, Axxx, x). Vulnerable against not, pard should have a decent hand. I like my distribution, the first or second round control of every suit and a source of tricks in H. Hence I bid 5H on the way to 5S to let pard know where my values are.

POSTCARDS

Condolences to the friends and family of Elaine Mast, a frequent player from in the South Hills. She will be missed and remembered. We also extend our sympathy to Susan Podgers on the loss of her sister. In addition, Carol Bolen's father died last week. Our best to Carol and her family.

Gail Hastings took a terrible fall at the Boyd Center, but she was up and back three days later, coming in first at the Friday evening Unit game. You can't keep a good person down for long!

We're glad to report that Ivan Port is home from surgery and rehab and, according to Arlene (granted, a suspect source) that he is improving daily. We look forward to his return to the tables, especially at the PBA Swiss Team monthly games - it's getting harder and harder to find someone to play with Arlene when he's not available!

Harriet Menzer is recuperating admirably from surgery and daughter Sue Lordi is so pleased with her recovery she's planning to leave town for the winter. (That sounds wrong, but it isn't an insult...)

Our regular hurry up and get well wishes go out to Marion Smith, Norman "Doc" Williams, Betty Noble, Mary Anne McNeirney and anyone we missed.

If we missed anyone, please let us know! E-mail either Arlene or Lougor contact your local club director or manager. If we don't know it, we can't print it!!

PRO-AM Charity Game

Generous caring hearts were trump all evening at the Pro-Am! The PBA Pros donated their valuable time and skills partnering with an Am who chose their Pro and then contributed to the charity! It was a win-win-win with Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) benefiting from the strong support of both Pros and Ams to make a difference in diabetes research. Great gratitude to:

- Bob Zimmermann for recruiting two capable caddies (one was his son (who said, "I taught my father everything he knows" .brilliant son!)
- Susan Portnoy, Registration Chair, who distributed treats in her gracious manner to both Pros and Ams and collected their money!
- Gus was Director extraordinaire with hand records available.
- Sandy Schuchert was a hand-full of help.
- Leslie Cassoff and Jacqui Wechsler for underwriting the delicious refreshments.

Pros and Ams for their significant $$$

If you could have observed Pat Katz on the phone two hours before the event attempting to recruit a Pro, you would have been amazed at her tenacity and the cell phone glued to her ear! She was successful. Grand Total for the 14th Annual PBA Pro Am Charity Game was $3500! Pat joins me in deep appreciation for everyone who played a hand to fund a diabetes cure.
